Greetings from HealthSy

It gives us immense pleasure to welcome you to the HealthSy family. The very thought that our brand 'HealthSy' is being heard or welcomed by you at this very moment gives us immense joy. Firstly, we at HealthSy would like to congratulate you and the team members of your clinic, hospital, healthcare center / institute for your outstanding services to your neighbourhood and to the people of this society for all these years, especially during the uncertain times of the Covid19 pandemic. As a professional and experienced doctor, your services range from counselling your patients, prescribing medicines, carrying out life-saving surgeries and operations, research work and so on. All these un-matched services are of great value and importance to the people of the society which ultimately saves hundreds of lives, keeps a family safe and happy and leads to a healthier workforce and society.

Brief About HealthSy

HealthSy is an online healthcare / technology platform that focuses on simplifying the healthcare ecosystem across India. We want to empower everyone in the country to get access to affordable and reliable medicines, healthcare products and services from the comfort of their homes. We call ourselves as the supermarket of healthcare sector as we provide the user / customer with all their needs right from buying prescribed medicines all the way to booking online consultations with doctors from the device of their choice. We have also been successful in bringing all the stakeholders of the healthcare industry under one roof called 'HealthSynergy' while taking care of each of their needs and fulfilling them.

HealthSy is a start-up that is backed by promoters, directors and stakeholders that have several years of experience in healthcare and e-commerce business. Our management has rich experience of running successful ventures and their vision is to take HealthSy to a top performing health-tech start-up and make it a leading e-healthcare platform in India.
